

Ararat Carer Connect

A group for parents and carers of children with disabilities and additional needs who want to be more informed and socially connected.

Each term we will run an information session or workshop and a social event. Carers are welcome to attend as many or as few sessions as they choose.

All parents of children and young adults with disabilities are welcome. You do not have to be using any other Pinarc services. Most events will be free of charge, however social lunches or dinners may at carers cost.

The Pinarc Parent Support Program is supported by the Victorian Government.
