

Are you our passionate new graduate?

We're looking forward to you joining our passionate multidisciplinary team

New graduate benefits include:

- Working with our multidisciplinary team including speech pathologists, occupational therapists, physiotherapists, educational advisors and allied health assistants
- Weekly supervision with grade 3 therapist
- Opportunity for live supervision sessions to support your professional learning and development
- Individualised learning plan created with your supervisor to ensure we're working with your learning style and setting career goals together
- Full orientation process to your role
- $500 for professional development in first year in addition to annual allowance of $500 as per our agreement
- Internal and external professional development provided in addition to your PD allowance
- Quarterly internal full day whole team meetings covering professional development, case studies, discipline specific meetings and team building
- Flexible work arrangements to suit your work-life balance
- Opportunity to purchase additional 4 weeks of leave for a total of 8 weeks annual leave per year
- Access to our annual bonus scheme
- No billable targets for first 6 months
- Generous and flexible salary sacrificing opportunities
- Access to Employee Assistance Program

For more information or to apply:
www.pinarc.org.au/employment

